Warblington
School

Message from Julia Vincent, Headteacher

200 teachers and learning support assistants have been involved in a joint inset day at Warblington School. We had an inspirational presentation by Andy Whittaker on "The Art of Being Brilliant" which was followed by some planning for cross-curricular activities within the four key stages.

It has been lovely to see so many staff from the Havant schools of Bidbury Infants, Fairfield Infants, Bosmere Junior, Emsworth Primary, Emsworth St James and St Albans.

Increased communication and planning will support greater progression for all our students.

Peter Pan

In the last two weeks of term Warblington School students pulled together to create an outstanding production of Peter Pan. Harry McClean performed a menacing 'Hook' whilst Ryan Rock played the forever-young Peter Pan. It was fantastic to see so many pupils involved in the production. The performers gave 110% during every single performance from the Fairies, Braves, Dancers and Mermaids, to all main cast characters. Many pupils came and supported the show by watching the evening performances as well as getting involved in front of house roles selling tickets and refreshments. The feedback from staff, pupils and parents has been fantastic and we would once again like to congratulate all those involved and reiterate how proud we are of each and every student involved! Congratulations on another sell out performance!
