

Paper 1- Crime and Punishment in Britain c1000-present. Whitehall historic environment.

Paper 2- Early Elizabethan England 1558-88

Paper 2- Superpower relations and the Cold War 1941-91

Paper 3- Weimar and Nazi Germany 1918-39

HISTORY

How can I revise all elements of the History?

Can I recall specific names, dates and events?

Can I analyse propaganda to explain its impact?

How were individuals affected during the Cold War?

What was the context of the Cold War?

YEAR 11

How do the different units link to each other? How do they effect us today?

Can I practice factor questions and improve my response?

How can revise in History? How do we identify gaps in our knowledge?

What impact did the Cold War have on foreign policy?

What were the key moments of tension during the Cold War?

How did Hitler become popular? How did propaganda play a role?

Can I explain the long and short term reasons for the rise of Hitler?

How did Hitler consolidate his power?

Can I describe specific features of different time periods?

YEAR 10

What challenges Faced Elizabeth I? What key events occurred during her reign?

How did different people interpret Elizabeth?

Can you analyse different events and explain which is more important?

Can you link events and explain causation?

What is crime and punishment like today? Why?

Can I write an extended essay covering an expanse of time?

Can I explain how events changed public opinion and law?

What caused WW1? What happened on the front lines?

How does the way crime and punishment changed reflect society?

Can I structure an essay using specific evidence?

How and why did crime and punishment change in the early modern period?

Can I describe how different factors influenced the way crime was punished?

Can I explain different theories around Jack the Ripper and make my own judgement?

Who was Jack the Ripper? How did the police investigate the murder?

How were people discriminated against?

How and why did crime change in the modern period?

Can I explain the significance of both long and short term causes?

Can I explain change and continuity between two time periods?

Can I explain how specific events change the course of History?

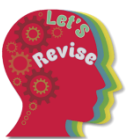

Can I use images and text as evidence to support my own knowledge?

What key events happened in WWII? What were the decisive moments in the war?

What happened in Portsmouth and Southampton during the War?

Was 1920's USA a period of prosperity?

YEAR 9

What was Britain's position in the world at the start of the 20th Century? How did events set the stage for war?

Can I explain the significance of the Titanic and explain how it fits with context?

How did Hitler rise to power in Germany? How did the Nazi Party change Germany?

How did women get the vote? Was the actions of the activists the most important reason?

How were people persecuted under the Nazi Regime?

Can I explain the causes of an event and create a judgement?

Can I research local history to discover how the war impacted where I live?

What happened post war? How did Britain rebuild?

What was the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade? How did it function? How did it end?

Can I explain how events have positive and negative consequences?

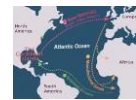

Can I use both sources and interpretations to create a balanced argument?

How did Britain change during the Industrial Revolution? What impact did it have on different groups of people?

What was Britain's role in the Slave Trade?

How did the British Empire grow? What impact did it have on different Colonies?

YEAR 8

How did the Black Death lead to the Peasants Revolt?

Can I explain the link between different events?

Can I explain the way that the relationship between Church and State changed over time?

How did Parliament develop under the Stuarts? What was Cromwell's role?

Can I write a narrative of an event?

What impact did the Black Death have on Britain?

How did the Tudor Rule change life in Britain? What was the Restoration?

How do historians use sources to gain understanding?

Can I describe the content, origin and purpose of sources? Can I explain why people might have different views of the same event?

Can I use evidence to make a decision about whether Cromwell was a hero or a villain using different viewpoints.

How was power split between Church and State?

Can I explain different reasons for an event?

What was the chronology of Britain pre 1066?

YEAR 7

How did the Norman Conquest change Britain?

What happened during the Norman conquest?

CHRONOLOGY

Can I organise things chronologically?

What makes someone significant?

welcome