A Message from The Editor

Another busy week at Warblington saw our first Tutor Parents Evening. It was great to see so many families during the evening and we hope you found the meetings helpful and informative.

If you were unable to attend the Tutor meetings, students will take home a copy of their Year groups 'What to expect' booklet, which includes information about the upcoming school year.

If you have any questions about the 'What to expect' booklets or would like to speak to your child's tutor, please contact reception.

Miss Cantrill

Army Team Building

On Tuesday 19th September we were fortunate to have the Army come in to school and work with some of our year 11 Prefects. The morning started with a talk about careers in the army and what skills are needed. Students then joined in with some team building activities in the gym! Great team work and communication skills all round!

Mrs Fletcher & Mr Gellett, Careers.

Absences from school

If a student is unable to attend school for any reason, please inform the school daily as to why the student is absent. Please call 023 92 475480 and select option 1 for the absence line.

If we do not receive a call on the morning of absence, parents and carers will be contacted by our Attendance Officer and informed that their child is not in school. This helps us to alert parents and carers to the fact that their child may have unexpectedly not turned up for school.

Team Warblington Focus

As we have had a few new staff members this term, for the next few weeks we will feature one of our new team members.

Miss Gamble, Pastoral Mentor!

My name is Miss Gamble and I have recently joined the Warblington School team! I returned from travelling around Australia in May and prior to this I worked at South Downs College as a drama teacher. Alongside work I am also currently studying for my Certificate in Psychodynamic Counselling.

You will find me in the pastoral support/careers room - right next to health and wellbeing. I am always here to help, whatever the problem may be!

I look forward to meeting everyone throughout the year and helping in any way that I can.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

On Friday 29th September, during morning break in the café, the catering team are holding a Macmillan Coffee Morning. Cakes will be 50p each and we can only accept cash for the purchase of cakes for this occasion.

MACMILLAN
CANCER SUPPORT

Any donations of cakes will be greatly appreciated on the day, but please remember we are a nut free school, so please do not include nuts in any recipes.

Thank you for helping us support this very worthy cause.
