Year 7/8 EFL Girls Cup

The squad of 9 Year 7&8 students made it all the way to the Semi final of the EFL Girls Cups! Narrowly missing out on the final, losing 4-3 to Brune Park in the Semi final.

The girls played a total of 6 games and 5 group stage games, which they won 4 out of 5 and the Semi final!

They played some fantastic football all the way through the tournament and worked hard as a team to secure that Semi final spot.

Group stage results:

- Warblington - Springfield 1 - 0
- Warblington - HTC 1-2
- Warblington - Park 5-0
- Warblington - Bay House 2-1
- Warblington - Havant 4-0

Well done girls this is fantastic and you should be so proud of yourselves!

Football fixture

Last night, six boys turned out for the school football team against The Petersfield School.

It was really pleasing to see a much improved performance from the reverse fixture previously. The game ebbed and flowed with outstanding defending from Connor K and excellent goalkeeping from Harvey R, the standout performances.

These boys deserve massive praise for turning up on an INSET day to represent the school. Well done lads!

Team: Harvey R, Matthew H, Ellis M, Toby P, Connor K, Ronnie H

Year 7 Netball

On Wednesday evening the year 7 netball team played 3 fixtures.

Warblington played their first fixture against a very evenly matched Crookhorn side, the girls worked hard for the whole game, when both attacking and defending. Final score 0-0.

In the second game Warblington faced Cowplain, again this was a very close game. The attacking force of Ella, Daisy, Evelyn S and Lucy saw Warblington score 2 points very quickly. Warblington then worked hard in defence thanks to Emilia, Jennifer, Honey and Evelyn C they held off Cowplain, only allowing them to score once. Final score 2-1.

The final game was against Hayling again some fantastic team work came in to play with the girls displaying some great netball skills, beating Hayling 2-0!

Team: Evelyn S, Lucy S, Ella B, Daisy B, Honey R, Evelyn C, Jennifer L and Emilia R

Year 8 Netball

On Monday evening the year 8 netball team took on Purbrook and Oaklands. The girls displayed some lovely netball throughout both games.

In the first game against Purbrook Warblington played some great passes round the Purbrook defence. Ella, feeding the ball in from the centre third to Maisie that played the ball in to Jasmine and Esme to get away a shot was excellent. Meanwhile Warblington's defence, Megan and Skye kept the Purbrook team from scoring too many points. Final score 7-2 to Warblington.

In the second game the girls continued to play very well, the team spirit was high and they worked hard for each other to gain another win, final score 8-1!

Team: Megan E, Jasmine B, Esme F, Ella B, Maisie M and Skye B.

Year 7 Art

'I am so proud of the work the Year 7 have been doing in Art recently. They have been studying the painting 'Starry Night' by Vincent Van Gogh, and writing a creative diary entry imagining they were the painter. Many of our students have done really well, not only with the writing element, but also by copying his painting in their own unique ways.'

Mrs Phillips

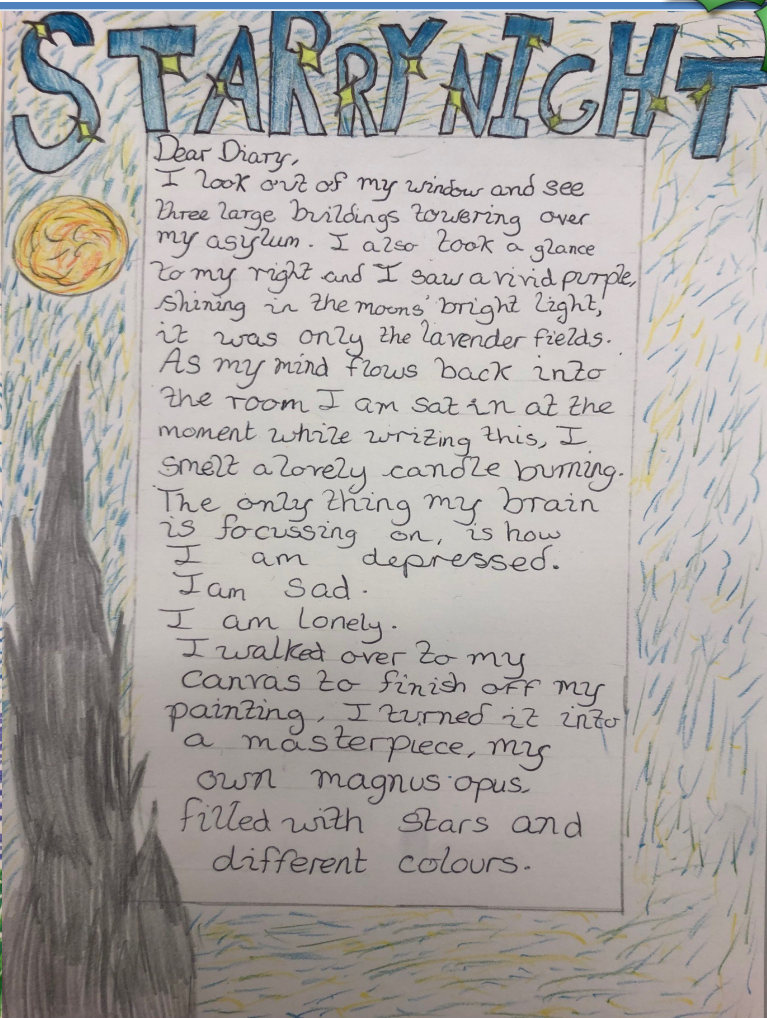

The following pictures are done by: Bethany M, Imogen F, Aroleja S and Livvy C.'

Dear diary,

I look out my window and all I can think of is home. My cold cell is filled with moonlight all is quite. The screams have stopped thank lords and all that's left is silence beautiful. Silence, it doesn't happen very often. Paintings are scattered across the room decorating the bleak prison. My mind is always wondering jumping from one thing to the other. The only thing I can focus on is art. I know every day that I step closer to home. I will be welcomed home. Vivid colour engulf me in mystical joy. The strong scent of lavender inspires me to start painting. I don't think I'm crazy but here I am stuck with no way home.

STARRY NIGHT

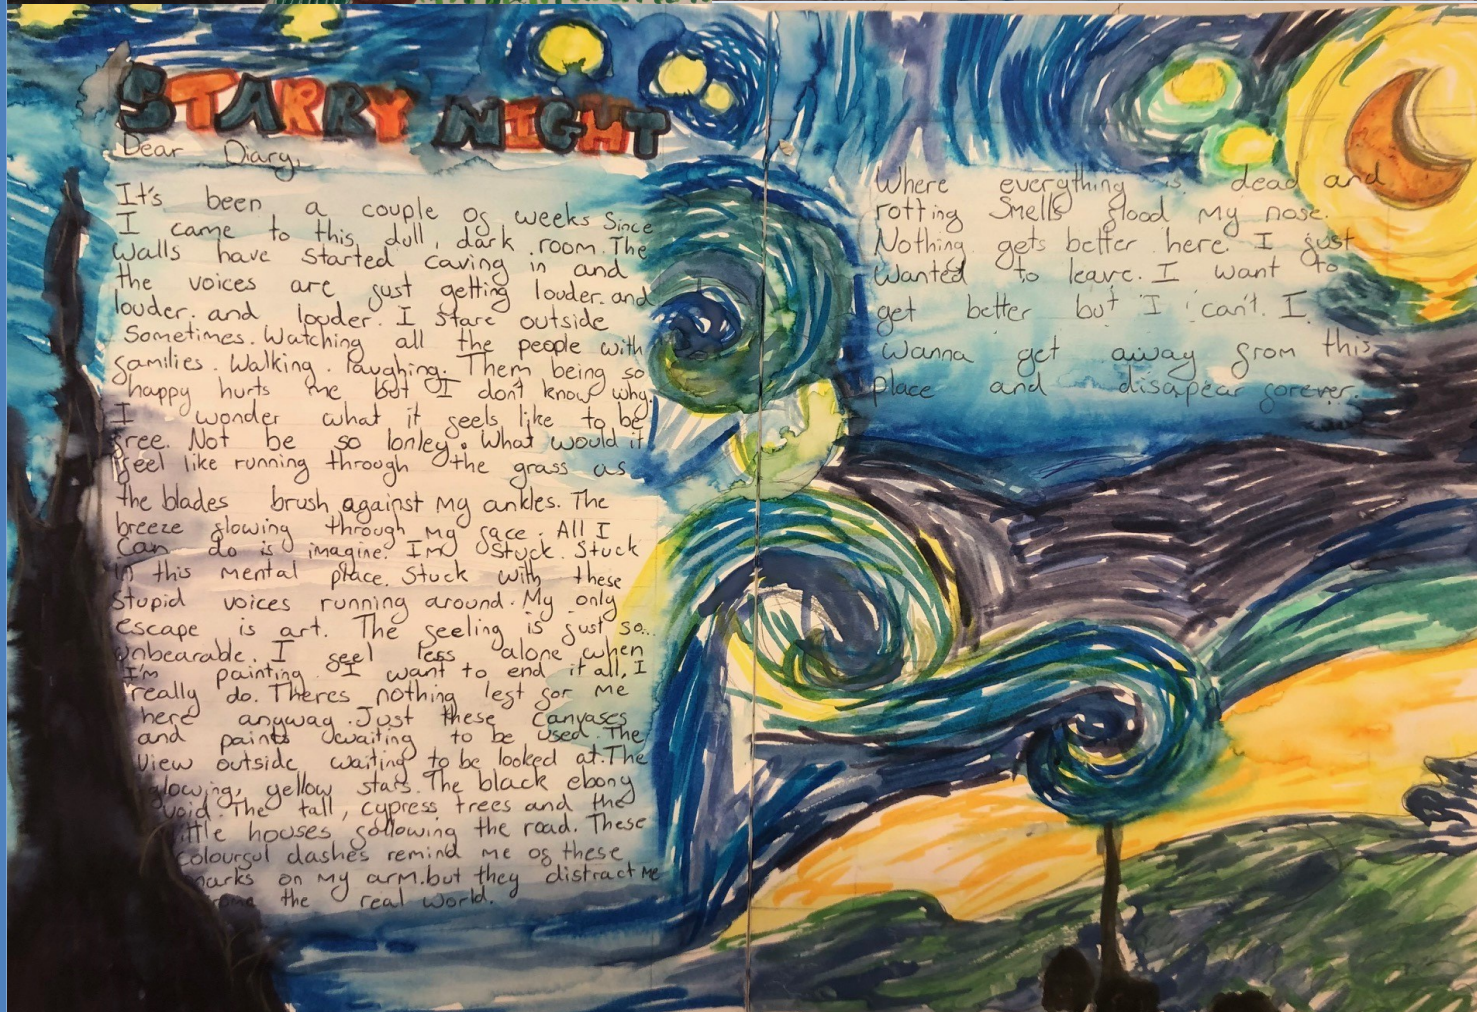

Dear Diary,

I look out of my window and see three large buildings towering over my asylum. I also took a glance to my right and I saw a vivid purple, shining in the moon's bright light, it was only the lavender fields. As my mind flows back into the room I am sat in at the moment while writing this, I smell a lovely candle burning. The only thing my brain is focussing on, is how I am depressed.

I am sad.

I am lonely.

I walked over to my canvas to finish off my painting. I turned it into a masterpiece, my own magnum opus, filled with stars and different colours.

STARRY NIGHT

Dear Diary,

It's been a couple of weeks since I came to this dull, dark room. The walls have started caving in and the voices are just getting louder and louder and louder. I stare outside sometimes, watching all the people with families, walking, laughing. Them being so happy hurts me but I don't know why. I wonder what it feels like to be free. Not be so lonely. What would it feel like running through the grass as the blades brush against my ankles. The breeze blowing through my face. All I can do is imagine. I'm stuck. Stuck in this mental place, stuck with these stupid voices running around. My only escape is art. The seeling is just so unbearable. I feel less alone when I'm painting. I want to end it all, I really do. There's nothing left for me here anyway. Just these canvases and paints waiting to be used. The view outside waiting to be looked at. The glowing, yellow stars. The black ebony void. The tall, cypress trees and the little houses following the road. These colourful dashes remind me of these marks on my arm, but they distract me from the real world.

Where everything is dead and rotting smells flood my nose. Nothing gets better here. I just wanted to leave. I want to get better but I can't. I wanna get away from this place and disappear forever.

ABOUT OTR

We opened our doors to young people in 1977 to help support them through difficult periods in their lives; mostly anxiety and family & relationships issues, but also anger,
low self-esteem and low mood.

Times have changed and we increasingly see
and support young people who self-harm,
have suicidal thoughts and have disordered eating patterns. But through counselling and groupwork we help young people progress toward a brighter future.
