

Weekly Newsletter

Friday 20th September 2024

Thank you to everyone who attended our tutor parents evening this week. It was fantastic to see so many parents from all year groups in school.

It was great to have all our Post-16 providers in attendance on the evening, having conversations about next steps with our students and their families, so a huge thank you to HSDC. Year 11 students can now look forward to visiting HSDC and our other local providers at their upcoming Open Evenings. For more information about college open evenings, please speak to Mr Gellet and Mrs L Fletcher our Career leaders.

We are looking forward to our annual Open Evening, which takes place this Tuesday, 24th September. Places on the Evening and the following day tours are booking fast, so book your place asap to avoid disappointment!

We would like to say a huge thank you to you, the Warblington students and families. Last week Mrs Kelly was able to drop off a huge donation to the food bank, all donated by Warblington families.

Michelle Smith from the food bank expressed her thanks and gratitude to you all for generosity.

Year 11 Girls — Free online Event

AWE Nuclear Security Technologies Online Female Event

Tuesday 24 September | 18:00 - 19:00

AWE Nuclear Security Technologies Want YOU!

Calling out to all females in Years 11 and 13!

AWE Nuclear Security Technologies has a critical mission: to support the defence and security of the UK. Their role in keeping the nation safe is to manufacture, maintain and develop the warheads for Trident, the UK's ultimate deterrent.

AWE's mission is to create a more diverse workforce, and as part of that, they're hosting a free, engaging webinar for females to explore the exciting opportunities available through their apprenticeships!

More information and free sign up: <https://pathwayctm.com/event/awe-female-webinar/>

Free School Meals - Eligibility Checker

Are you in receipt of tax or Universal Credit? If so your child may be entitled to Free School Meals (FSM).

You can now apply online for free school meals for your child, this is the web address for the application: Online FSM Application \(cloudforedu.org.uk\)

Applying for free school meals not only gives your child the opportunity to have a meal, but the Government also gives the school additional money to help with your child's education.

We would like to remind parents that:

- registering is confidential
- taking up the meal is recommended but it not compulsory - Your child's account will receive a daily credit of £3.20 to use that day.
- cashless catering means that students eligible for free school meals can not be identified by peers
- a student eligible for free school meals will be eligible for other sources of financial support (see below)
- registering a child for free school meals will bring additional funds into the school (see information under Pupil Premium Grant)

Additional Financial Support

Support is offered to students on an individual basis but may include the following:

- help with the purchase of key uniform items
- some financial help with trips
- supply of equipment for learning
- revision materials

If you have a query about your child's eligibility for free school meals please contact the school finance office: admin@warblingtonschool.co.uk

If your child is already in receipt of Free School Meals, you do not have to re-apply.

Nasal Flu Vaccination

Earlier this week, an email was sent to all parents and carers regarding the nasal flu immunisation. Please click the link below to give permission for your child to receive the nasal flu immunisation in school.

If you do not wish for your child to receive the immunisation in school, please complete the online form to record your decision.

Access to the form will close at 10am two working days prior to the session.

School Code: SH116475

Session date: 03/12/2024

What Parents & Educators Need to Know about FINAL FANTASY XIV

AGE RESTRICTION
PEGI
16

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

The video game Final Fantasy XIV launched in 2010, and, despite being critically panned, it saw an overhaul that has made it one of the biggest success stories in gaming. Its huge world, epic story and versatile combat system have continued to draw in new players, but there's a lot that trusted adults need to be aware of – not least the cost of paying monthly to play.

ALWAYS ONLINE

Final Fantasy XIV is an MMORPG, which stands for Massively Multiplayer Online Role-Playing Game. Much like World of Warcraft, players create a character in a chosen class and level up by completing quests to gain power and items. The game requires a constant internet connection, whether you're playing on PC, Mac, PlayStation or Xbox, and there's no option to play offline.

REGULAR EXPANSIONS

As with similar titles in the genre, players can purchase expansions to unlock additional content for the game. Those without the expansions will be locked out of certain new quests and activities, meaning that young people who play regularly will potentially have the next release earmarked on their calendar, ready to buy it as soon as possible.

IN-GAME PURCHASES & SUBSCRIPTION FEE

Users need to pay £8.99 per month to play Final Fantasy XIV, but there is a free trial. If someone stops paying, they'll lose access to their character (although they'll be able to pick up the payments again and resume where they left off). If a player forgets to cancel their payments, however, those subscription fees will continue rolling on automatically.

VOICE & TEXT CHAT

Final Fantasy XIV lets players send chat messages in-game or speak to each other over voice chat. On the one hand, that provides plenty of choice for how those enjoying the game can interact with their fellow fans. On the other hand, however, it's easier than in many games to receive unprompted messages from a stranger, with whom you constantly share your play space.

VIOLENCE

While Final Fantasy XIV has a fairly light tone throughout some of its quests, many involve killing enemies and sometimes even wild animals. The violence isn't especially strong – more comparable to a cartoon or anime style – but the act alone may make some children feel uncomfortable, if they're not yet able to separate fictional harm from the real kind.

POTENTIAL FOR ADDICTION

As with World of Warcraft, there's an element of addiction to Final Fantasy XIV. The gameplay loop can be quite engrossing, as minutes turn into hours and hours into days while playing alone or with friends. This can potentially lead to missing real-life events, a lack of interest in any activities not related to the game and procrastination around responsibilities like schoolwork.

FREE TRIAL

Advice for Parents & Educators

MANAGE PLAYTIME

Playtime limits are a great way to counter the addictive qualities of games like Final Fantasy XIV. They allow you discuss why it's still important to enjoy things outside of gaming while still letting a child enjoy playing online with their friends when it makes sense to do so. It's all well and good to have fun with a game, so long as they're able to step away and reconnect with the real world.

MAKE USE OF THE FREE TRIAL

The Final Fantasy XIV free trial is a generous one, with no limits on how long someone can play until their character hits level 70. That's easily dozens of hours for a child to go through the game, complete quests, and see if they enjoy it before purchasing expansions or subscribing to a membership. They may well move on to something else before you need to spend so much as a penny.

PLAY TOGETHER

The free trial makes it extremely easy to jump into Final Fantasy XIV and play alongside a child, provided they're old enough. Not only does that help you ensure that settings are adjusted for their privacy and safety, but it may also end up becoming a bonding experience for you both and any other family members that want to try it out.

REMEMBER, IT'S A PEGI 16

Despite its often-relaxing nature, Final Fantasy XIV carries a PEGI 16 rating for violence and drugs (although the latter is due to a character smoking a pipe on occasion). There's minimal blood, but characters can attack enemies (and other players) with weapons and spells. Take a look at some gameplay videos to see if the content is appropriate for a younger player.
