Well done to the participants of the Inter-House Creative Writing Competition. We had some fantastic entries with lovely language, themes and engaging ideas.

The Winners are:

1st Place : Jemima A - Norris

2nd Place: Kaelyn W - Stowe

3rd Place: Thomas BL - Paxton

Please see the winning piece of writing below:

The Babysitter – By Jemima A yr10 Norris

Nora opened the door for the babysitter, her parents had already left. The Babysitter was an old lady despite the rainy weather she didn't seem to be getting wet. The lady smiled a wide, creepy smile. "I'm going to take care of you, for ever and ever" she said.

Nora just shrugged and went into the lounge, back to her stuffies, the babysitter did not follow but instead walked through a hall of portraits.

About an hour later Nora decided to check on her, she wasn't in the hall anymore, Nora turned to see her plushies gone.

Nora rushed into the kitchen, where the old lady was, she was putting the teddies into the oven. Nora let out a cry and the old lady's head turned a 180.

Nora screamed and ran upstairs, into her room and locking the door. Nora huddled on her bed when she heard whispering from under her bed. "I'm going to take care of you forever and ever" The old ladies head popped out, her bony hand reaching and grabbing Nora pulling her under the bed despite her screams.

Later, Nora's parents rushed home because the babysitter called to day she was ill and can't mind Nora. Her parents checked everywhere, the kitchen, the lounge, her bedroom but if only...when checking the portraits hall they looked closer at a certain picture.

A picture, showing Nora, the old lady with her wide smile and burnt plushies, a scream etched on Nora's face. A picture, if you listed closely, whispering "I will take care of you, forever and ever".

Tassomai Text To Speak

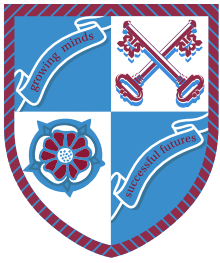

Tassomai, our brilliant homework platform, has a function that will help students with reading the questions and answer choices. It's called 'Text-to-speak'. To turn on the function log into your account, go to 'settings' and then 'text-to-speak', toggling on the option. This will then get Tassomai to read out the questions and answers, helping you complete your homework.

Dear Parents/Carers,

Re: Pupil Premium and Free School Meals

If your child is eligible for 'free school meals' and you register them for this, the school receives some additional funding called 'Pupil Premium'. We use this extra money to improve the educational provision and resources at the school.

What is Pupil Premium funding?

Pupil Premium funding from the government is given to schools to help students reach their full potential, regardless of their background or financial situation. It's provided for students who:

- Are registered for free school meals
- Have been registered for free school meals at any point in the past 6 years
- Are, or have been, in care

Is my child eligible for free school meals?

Your child might be eligible if you access:

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance or Employment and Support Allowance
- Support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- The guaranteed element of Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit (provided you're not also entitled to Working Tax Credit and have an annual gross income of no more than £16,190)
- Working Tax Credit run-on
- Universal Credit, provided you have an annual net earned income not exceeding £7,400 (£616.67 per month)

How do I register?

To register, please complete the application form at the following link:
